

right peaceably to assemble and take measures to have their grievances redressed.

KEEP IT BEFORE THE PEOPLE.

That Martin Van Buren, in approving the sentence of the Naval Court Martial, in the case of Lieut. George Mann Hoce, has fully sanctioned the right of negro servants of public prosecutors, to give testimony against white men—and that, too, in the slaveholding States and Territories.

KEEP IT BEFORE THE PEOPLE.

That the whole policy of Van Buren's administration is at war with their best interests, and destructive of their prosperity. Let it be known throughout the length and breadth of the land, that a crusade is now going on against the rights of the working-man, whose wages are to be reduced to TEN CENTS a day. Spread it from East to West, from North to South, that the decree has gone forth that a SHEEP'S HEAD AND PLUCK, is a sufficient reward for a day of hard toil. Let every dweller in the "Log Cabins" of the country know the fact, that a Loco Foco Congressman has declared that the "hard fisted" laborers of America can, and should, subsist without meat, and that potatoe soup, onions and garlic, are good enough for the men who, in the estimation of Martin Van Buren, James Buchanan, Thomas H. Benton, and Senator Walker, are only fit to be placed on a level with the serfs of Russia, or the black slaves of the West India Islands.

KEEP IT BEFORE THE PEOPLE.

That General William Henry Harrison will be the President on the 4th of March next, and will rectify all the evils under which the country suffers, and restore the Government to the pure democratic principles of Jefferson and Madison.

[COMMUNICATED.]

DIED—In Warren county, on Thursday the 3d inst. Mrs. EMILY, wife of James Warren, Esq. of this place, aged twenty-three years.

The decease of Mrs. Warren takes from our society one of its most exemplary and esteemed members. Death—that most insatiable of all enemies—has, within the last two years, made appalling inroads upon our little circle. The fair, the lovely, the most cherished in our small society, have been cut off in the pride of their prime, and borne, amid the tears of survivors and the wailing of friends, to their long home! Nor virtue, nor accomplishment, nor the most endearing ties, could save them from the rude grasp of the destroyer!

Mrs. Warren had been, for several years, a consistent member of the Church of Christ. In her daily walk and conversation, she "adorned the doctrine of God her Savior in all things." She was the embodiment of all those amiable, graceful and truly feminine charms which give to woman her peculiar empire, and to that empire all its delight and loveliness. The Christian meekness, the devotion to each tender tie, and the uniform kindness of disposition which marked her brief career, endeared her to society, and made her the idol of her friends.

In her last hours she proved the sustaining nature of the Christian's faith. That God whom she had worshipped carried her in triumph through dissolving Nature's last struggle—robbing death of its sting, and the grave of its victory. The high hopes of immortality which she was permitted to entertain, enabled her to walk, without fear, through the dark valley and the shadow of death; and, we are permitted to believe, illumined her way up to the Temple above. Her calm resignation and triumphant hope in death, will form the highest consolation of her surviving relatives and friends. They will cheer and sustain the lone widowhood of her sorrowing husband, and gladden the orphanage of her motherless babe. On the 5th inst., she was interred at the family burial place near the future residence of her father, John Snodgrass, Esq.; and was attended to the grave by those who had been the companions of her childhood and the friends of her youth. Their tears attested her worth, and the devoted friendship of those by whom she was best known and appreciated. She will sleep well in the lone grave which the tears of love and friendship have consecrated; and rise, with "the just made perfect" to enter upon the eternal rewards of "the ransomed from among men," when they shall "return and come to Zion, with songs and everlasting joy upon their heads."

DIED—Near Fayette, in this county, on the 27th ult., of congestive fever, Miss ELIZA SILLERS, daughter of the late Walter Sillers, Esq., in the 21st year of her age.

In the deceased were combined all the amiable qualities which adorn the female character, and possessing a well cultivated mind, a guileless heart, and the faculty and disposition of promoting the happiness of others, rendered her an agreeable companion and faithful friend. She has left an extensive circle of relatives and friends, who, whilst they shed the tear of sympathy for the loss of one whose virtues endeared her to them, are consoled in the belief that a glorious immortality awaited her.

DIED—In this vicinity on the 25th ult., Mrs. ELIZABETH SISON, consort of Eldridge Sison.

Through her short illness her patience and resignation seemed to present the happiest assurances of her unfaltering reliance upon him, who is never deaf to humble prayer, nor impotent to save.

She has left a disconsolate husband, family and a numerous circle of friends to mourn her departure.

for the sale of Cotton, &c. in the City of New Orleans. To those who have patronized him in the last two years it is unnecessary to state in what manner he conducts his business, but to those who may desire to form new connexions in the City, he will state that he is at all times prepared to make advances on shipments to his address, when in possession of the property, or a bill of lading from Steamboats, &c. upon which the insurance offices of this City will take risks. Having set out with a determination to do a business which will secure safety to his correspondents, as well as to himself, he states for the information of the public, that he will continue to conduct his business in the manner he commenced it, viz:

Not to come under any liability until placed in the possession of the property; and his patrons may implicitly rely on a rigid adherence to this determination.

All shipments of Cotton to his address will be under insurance, unless specified in the bill of lading that the shipper does not desire it.
